Today's Prayer and Reflection:

He who has dipped his hand into the dish with me is the one who will betray me. (Matthew 26:23)

What a cryptic saying! Was Jesus really trying to reveal the identity of his betrayer? Or was he simply suggesting that all the apostles would betray him in some way or another? After all, each of them had dipped his hand into the bowl with Jesus at some point during the meal. It was only when Judas spoke up that he was singled out.

Like the twelve, each of us "dips into the bowl" with Jesus whenever we eat his Body and drink his Blood. And like the Twelve, each of us has betrayed the Lord in some way at one time or another in our lives. The chances are that we'll do it again. Why? Because it's part of our fallen nature. This can sound depressing, but there is good news: We are forgiven. It doesn't matter whether we have committed great sins or small ones. Whether we have lied or are harboring a grudge against someone, we all need Jesus' sacrifice on the cross to set us free.

What hope we can have, and not just for ourselves, but for each other as well! Every one of us who comes to the table is a forgiven sinner. The next time you are at Mass, take a look around at your brothers and sisters in Christ, and recognize them as your family. You are all "dipping into the bowl" with Jesus. Thank the Lord that you are all covered by his mercy and love. May this realization bring us to greater unity with each other. Jesus' deepest desire is that we would be one as he and the Father are one. Let's ask him today to teach us to be merciful as he is merciful, so that this longing of his might be fulfilled!

"Thank you, Lord, for your sacrifice on the cross. Make us one as you and the Father are one. Give us humility and compassion for one another as we strive to live for you."

Today's Announcements:

- Students going into ninth through twelfth grades and need a physical, please pick up forms today. Forms need to be turned in by tomorrow before we leave for Easter Break. See Mrs. Whiteside, Ms. Dapremont, or Nurse Cathy to pick one up. Girls physicals will be on Monday, April 24 at 3:00 p.m. (Monday we come back from break), and boys will be April 25 at 3:00 p.m. Your parent's signature and completed basic information has to be on turned in form in order to participate.
- Class officer applications will be available the Monday we return from Spring Break. You must be registered in order to run for class officer or student council representative.
- Congratulations to cast and crew of Disco Inferno for outstanding performances the last few days.

- Lady Irish Softball defeated Perry Central 16-1. It was the girls 51st straight district win, making them undefeated in district for the past seven years. Chandler Wheeler had two exceptional hits and Anna D'Aquilla pitched a one-hitter in the win. Way to go, girls!
- Congratulations to the Boys Golf Team for a good showing at yesterday's St. Patrick Invitational Tournament at The Oaks. Robby Waltz led the Irish with our lowest score, followed closely by Jacob Futch, and Carson Bishop turned in his best score ever of his young but promising career. Good luck today as the team plays a nine-hole match at Sunkist. Players report to the course immediately after school.
