Today's Prayer and Reflection:

Thus I aspire to proclaim the Gospel not where Christ has already been named, so that I do not build on another's foundation, but as it is written:

Those who have never been told of him shall see, and those who have never heard of him shall understand.

(Romans 15:14-21)

Jesus tells us that the kingdom of God is among or, in an equally valid translation of the Greek, within us. But how do we recognize the Kingdom that is among and within us? What do we look for? Solomon suggests a very good place for us to start, with his poetic words of praise for wisdom in the first reading.

Where we find wisdom, we find the presence of God—within us and among us. Cultivate eyes to see and ears to hear the wisdom that comes from your own heart, and from the words and example of other prayerful people. Seek wisdom and you'll find the Kingdom.
