
ST. PATRICK CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

This Week at St. Patrick

Good morning St. Patrick families,

We hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday filled with faith, family, and time together. Know how grateful we are for you.

We wish you blessings of peace and joy as we begin this season of Advent. We celebrate the beginning of our Church's liturgical year with the season of Advent - the season encompassing the four Sundays (and weekdays) leading up to the celebration of Christmas. The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. May Advent be a continuous call to hope - allow this season to remind us that God is present in history to lead it to its ultimate goal and to its fullness, which is the Lord Jesus Christ.

Tomorrow is Giving Tuesday, and our Diocese is participating in the #iGiveCatholic campaign to raise funds for needs in our area. Here at St. Patrick, we are raising money to support the Guardian Angel Fund which provides tuition assistance for students in need. Please consider giving the gift of education to children who desire a Catholic education. To participate in this campaign or to get more information, visit stpatrickhighschool.net/iGiveCatholic. All donations, regardless of the amount, are received with prayerful gratitude.

Tickets to all St. Patrick home athletic events are now available to be purchased at stpatrickhighschool.net/tickets. Immediately upon purchase, tickets will be emailed to you - you may print your tickets or keep on your smartphone. All tickets will be scanned at the door or gate. There continues to be no cost for students and no additional cost for athletic passholders; however, we ask students and athletic passholders to reserve their ticket online and scan at the door or gate. We continue to limit capacity at all athletic events, and tickets will be sold on a first come, first serve basis.

Let's make it a great week!

Scripture of the Week

2 Corinthians 11:30: If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

One of Paul's recurring themes throughout 2 Corinthians is that God's strength is made perfect in weakness. In 1 Corinthians, he emphasizes that the strength, wisdom, and power of God are shown in what is normally a sign of weakness and humiliation — the Cross (cf. 1 Corinthians 1:18-2:5). Paul wasn't a wimp — remember all that he endured and kept on serving the Lord (2 Corinthians 11:24-27). He just knew that even with all his training and talent, he wasn't skilled, smart, or strong enough to do all that needed to be done for the Kingdom of God. But he knew that when we recognize our insufficiency, God takes our weakness and uses it powerfully when we offer ourselves to him!

Dear Heavenly Father, thank you for all those times that you have strengthened us when we were under trial, given us wisdom when in a difficult situation, or empowered us when we faced situations and opportunities greater than our abilities to handle. We recognize that you saved us by your grace; but each day that we serve you, we are again reminded that your grace continues to propel us through our service to you. Thank you, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Happy Birthday
